Message given by Jesus to Elizabeth Kindelmann

“I must tell you, My daughter, that My Mother will not have been as venerated ever since the Word became Flesh, as she will be once she spreads the effect of grace of her Flame of Love in hearts and souls. The day her Flame of Love prevails, all the prayers and supplications addressed to her anywhere in the world will be joined in one single supplication for help. In this way, humanity will prostrate at the feet of the Mother of God to give her thanks for her unlimited maternal love.”

August 4, 1963

INTRODUCTION

This document presents the history of the Flame of Love Movement on the American continent, parts of Africa, Hungary and other countries in the world. This document will be updated and reprinted as we receive additional information.

If you wish to read the messages given to Elizabeth Kindelmann by Our Lord Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary, we draw your attention to the Spiritual Diary kept by Elizabeth Kindelmann at the request of the Lord.

You can also read excerpts of the Spiritual Diary in a 96-page booklet and a 32-page booklet. If you want to spread the message around you, these two booklets are available to you from the Flame of Love Movement in Canada.

We hope that this document will give you a clear idea of the presence of the Movement in the world, because the Virgin Mary promises that the Flame will spread like wildfire, in her message of May 4, 1962: "... everything must be prepared in such a way that it spreads like wildfire. Let those souls whom I have chosen do everything to prepare for the great mission ahead."

HISTORY OF THE FLAME OF LOVE MOVEMENT

The year 1000

- Saint Stephen was crowned king of Hungary.

1038

- Before dying, Saint Stephen entrusted the kingdom of Hungary to the Virgin Mary. It was the first country in the world to be consecrated to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

1914 - 1918

- Hungary was very hard-hit after the First World War by losing two thirds of its territory.

1939 - 1945

- During the Second World War it was invaded and occupied by Germany. After the war, the Soviet Union occupied Hungary until 1990. Although Communism was established throughout the country, Hungary never lost the faith.

1948

- In Hungary, under the communist regime, a young religious, Gabriel Róna, left his homeland to complete his theological studies in Spain. Ordained priest, he will be a missionary for 30 years in Ecuador.

1960

- On 13th July, three days before the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Elizabeth Kindelmann had a marvelous spiritual enlightenment that lasted three days and was a silent introduction to the presence of the Lord. Until 1981, Elizabeth then received many messages from Our Lord Jesus and the Blessed Virgin Mary.

- Father Marcel was her first spiritual director in those early days when she went to pray at the Carmelite Church in Budapest, Hungary.

- Saint Michael's Church in Erd, Hungary, became a popular place for pilgrims who later came to pray with Elizabeth. They came from several countries around Hungary (Germany, Slovakia, Romania, Serbia, Austria...). In 2011, Sister Ildikó Szöllősi shared with us some of what she lived in this church that she used to attend during the nights of prayer. We have made this information available on a DVD so that you can know the places where Elizabeth went to pray.

1962

- August 31 – The Blessed Virgin said the following words: Virgin Mary - "My Flame of Love must be carried across to the other side of the ocean!"
Elizabeth - I do not know how I will fulfill this because the Blessed Virgin did not explain. She just asked me to be cautious.
Editor's Note: The spark has skipped over to America; it first arrived to Ecuador and next to Mexico and to the entire South America. This same spark continued its journey towards the north up to Canada, and from that country towards the United States and many others, including Africa and Asia.

1970

Elizabeth Kindelmann and the Chapel of the Holy Family.

- During the 1970s, Elizabeth Kindelmann founded and directed the first prayer group of the Flame of Love in the shrine of the Holy Family, in Budapest (25 Székely Bertalan Street, Budapest 1065).

We therefore consider this place as the "cradle" of our Movement, where a small group of believers formed a spiritual community in response to the calls received in their hearts from the Virgin Mother and the Lord Jesus.

In September 2012, Cardinal Péter Erdő granted permission to members of the Flame of Love Movement to use the Chapel of the Holy Family for prayer.

Once the renovations were completed, the chapel was blessed on June 18, 2013, during Holy Mass.

1978

- The knowledge of the Flame of Love in Brazil comes from the publication of the first edition of the Spiritual Diary in Hungary. The translation was made directly from Hungarian to Brazilian Portuguese.

1979

- A Hungarian religious, Sister Anna Roth, who knew Elizabeth Kindelmann well, introduced the messages in Germany. A small booklet of the messages was sent also to Editions du Parvis in Switzerland who printed two booklets in French of 32 and 60 pages.
- The little book of the Flame of Love arrived in Canada by a lady who brought it back from Europe. Father Guy Marie Menard, a Jesuit, read about it and printed several thousand copies which he made available at the Church of the Gesù in Montreal, where his office was established. Father Menard gave courses of consecration to Mary. He died in 1995.

1980

- The first translation of the message of the Flame of Love was made into German by Sister Anna Roth and it was distributed in Germany.
- Father Gabriel Róna sent a letter to Ana Maria Trujillo de Moreno in Mexico informing her that the message of the Flame of Love has been translated into several languages. The messages traveled to China, translated by a missionary from Taiwan. They were then translated into a dialect of the Democratic Republic of the Congo (former Zaire) by a missionary of the Divine Word. But before that they had already been translated into German, Portuguese, French, Italian, English, Dutch and Spanish.

1982

- October 20 A small 16-page leaflet was printed in Spanish in Quito, Ecuador, translated from the Hungarian original.

1983

- Father Gabriel Róna translated the Spiritual Diary from Hungarian to Spanish between 1983 and 1989.
- Anna Maria Trujillo de Moreno received a 16-page leaflet of the Flame of Love in Spanish, published in Spain.
- Hortensia E. de Luconi from Costa Rica discovered the Flame of Love devotion during a visit from a friend of the United States who had a 14-page leaflet.
- 92,000 Copies of a 14-page Spanish Flame of Love booklet were printed in Spain.
- Approval to print the Spanish translation of a Flame of Love leaflet is given by Mgr. Gabriel Dias Cueva, Auxiliary Bishop and Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Quito, Ecuador. The printing took place on May 26, 1983.

Mexico's first National Director

- Ana Maria Trujillo de Moreno was the first National Director of the Movement for Mexico. She received the first booklet in Spanish of this Heavenly message, in a providential way in 1983 from Zaragoza, Spain. That same year, she made contact with Father Gabriel Róna, S.J., who translated the Spiritual Diary from Hungarian to Spanish. Originally from Hungary, he lived in Ecuador at that time.

1984

- It was in September that the first Cenacle of the Flame of Love was formed in Mexico. 56,000 Copies of a 14-page Spanish Flame of Love booklet were printed in Spain. One thousand copies were sent to Ecuador and another thousand to Mexico.

1985

- April 11 – Elizabeth Kindelmann died after a long illness. She was buried in Erd / Ofalu, about twenty-four kilometers southwest of Budapest, on the banks of the Danube.

- The complete Spiritual Diary of the Flame of Love was published in Hungarian in Germany.
- Towards the end of the year, Father Gabriel Róna received in a providential manner the complete text of the Hungarian original Spiritual Diary.
- Thanks to a leaflet from Spain, Acapulco and Hermosillo in Mexico were the first Archdioceses where the Flame of Love was accepted by their Bishops.
- It is also in Mexico that the national conferences of the Flame of Love Movement began.

1986

- April 7 – Father Gabriel Róna began to send the pages he had translated from Hungarian to Spanish to Anna Maria Trujillo de Moreno — some 27 pages in each mailing. Anna Maria Trujillo de Moreno then took them to Archbishop Rafael Bello Ruiz, Archbishop of Acapulco, who expressed his appreciation.
- January 27 – Father Gabriel Róna felt the need to translate the complete Spiritual Diary of Elizabeth Kindelmann into Spanish.
- In Colombia, the Flame of Love reached Santa Fe de Bogotá at the same time when Pope John Paul II was visiting the city. On this occasion a lady gave Beatriz de Tavera a small booklet of the Flame of Love. Later, Beatriz de Tavera became the National Director of Colombia.

1987

- August 15 – Father Gabriel Róna received the permission of Mgr. Gabriel Dias Cueva, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Guayaquil, to print the pamphlet entitled "Flame of Love of the Immaculate Heart of Mary" translated from Hungarian to Spanish. It was on the feast of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary.
- In a letter dated July 28, Archbishop Rafael Bello Ruiz approved the messages of the Flame of Love contained in the Spiritual Diary that was being translated at that time.
- In Puerto Rico, USA, the Flame of Love was already very well-known because the booklet could be found in bookstores and many people practiced this devotion. Ms. Elba Colon recommended it to everyone she knew. She had received messages from the Spiritual Diary through a friend in Spain.
- In Mexico, the Flame of Love Movement received the support of the bishops and archbishops of Acapulco, Celaya, Tuxtla, Mexico City, Hermosillo and Durango.

1988

- Towards the middle of the year the first meetings of the Flame of Love began in Guayaquil, Ecuador, with Father Gabriel Róna and 6 people very faithful to the Virgin Mary.

1989

- June 15th In Guayaquil, Ecuador, bishops gave their blessing to the Flame of Love Movement.

After having read the manuscript of the Spiritual Diary of the Flame of Love, Mgr. Bernardino Echeverria Ruiz, Archbishop of Guayaquil, Ecuador, granted his permission to print it.

- Father Róna returned to Hungary with the permission of his superiors.
- June 7th – The translation of the Spiritual Diary from Hungarian to Spanish was completed. It was printed in two copies, one for Mexico and the other for Ecuador. Thus, the heavenly message began to spread throughout South America.

1990

- January 18th – The first national conference of the Flame of Love Movement was held in Quito, Ecuador.

1991

- A first English edition of a 136-page book entitled The Flame of Love of the Immaculate Heart of Mary was printed in Orangevale, California. A second edition was printed in 1998.

1992

- January 8 – In a letter to Ana Maria Trujillo de Moreno, Mgr. Carlos Quintero Arce, Archbishop of Hermosillo, Mexico, expressed his wish that the heavenly message of the Flame of Love be spread throughout the Church.
- July 17th – Mrs. Elba Colon with a friend had a wonderful interior experience with the Flame of Love. This friend currently lives in Pennsylvania in the United States where she formed a Flame of Love prayer cenacle.

1993

- Anna Maria Trujillo de Moreno sent images of the Flame of Love to the United States to be used for family visitations. Peggy, Esther Clare and Guadalupe Shun began the apostolate of the Flame of Love by forming prayer cenacles in the families, using the rosary and a small sheet of the Flame of Love messages.
- May 1st – The Archbishop of Acapulco gave a very special blessing to a novena leaflet during a first Flame of Love retreat for all of Mexico.

1994

- April 16th – Following the invitation of Archbishop Carlos Quintero Arce to form a first Cenacle of Prayer, the Flame of Love became known in Hermosillo, Mexico. More cenacles were formed in several cities of the Archdiocese: Santa Ana, Caborca, Magdalena, Nogales, Tijuana B.C., Tucson and Arizona.
- The Flame of Love has spread to El Salvador. Jorge Antonio Cruz went to Mexico in May to receive the Flame of Love and brought the message back to El Salvador.
- November 12th – Cardinal Bernardino Echeverria Ruiz gave his approval to a booklet entitled: "Prayer Cenacles of the Flame of Love of the Immaculate Heart of Mary - A New Pentecost", as an instrument for the propagation of the cenacles of prayer throughout the world.

1995

- The emblem of the International Flame of Love Movement was given to the painter Maria Luisa Morales as an inspiration. The text surrounding the emblem says: Mother, save us by the Flame of Love of your Immaculate Heart. (On the image, the writing is in Portuguese).

1996

- February 2nd – The first national retreat of the Flame of Love Movement was held at the Basilica of Guadeloupe, Mexico.

- February 6 – Msgr. Flavio Calle Zapata, Bishop of the diocese of Sonson Rionegro, wrote a letter to Beatriz Casas de Tavera de Santa Fe, in Bogotá, Colombia, thanking her for sending him the brochure entitled "Prayer Cenacles".

- June 18 – The Flame of Love Movement in San José, Costa Rica, officially began as an apostolic Movement that spread throughout San José.
- June 26 – During correspondence with Difusora Mariana Argentina, it was confirmed that there were already prayer groups of the Flame of Love in Argentina.
- Sister Anna Roth proposed a triptych (a picture or carving on three panels side by side used as an altarpiece) which received the Imprimatur of the Bishop of Hungary. Ten thousand of them were made and they ran out quickly.
- October 22 – Cardinal Bernardino Echeverría Ruiz of Ecuador approves the statutes of the Flame of Love Movement for his diocese.
- December 12 – Returning from her trip to Mexico, Mrs. Nilda de Mejia from Peru gathered friends interested in the Flame of Love at her home to begin a cenacle of prayer.

1997

- January 9 – the Archbishop of Hermosillo, Mexico, Bishop J. Ulises Macias Salcedo approved the printing of the Spiritual Diary and all the documents of the Flame of Love.

1997

- January 9 – the Archbishop of Hermosillo, Mexico, Bishop J. Ulises Macias Salcedo approved the printing of the Spiritual Diary and all the documents of the Flame of Love.

1998

- February 1st – Sister Anna Roth passed away and was granted to be buried next to Elizabeth's grave. She was regarded as a woman who had great love for all. She had been actively involved in printing the messages in Germany.

- April 17 – The Auxiliary Bishop of San Jose, Costa Rica, Antonio Troyo Calderon, approved the publication of the messages of the Flame of Love.

- In Canada, we had the first prayer group of the Flame of Love in Longueuil, on the South Shore of Montreal. Every week the group gathered to pray the Flame of Love Rosary with celebration of Holy Mass at Gerard Picard's house where he lived with his mother Leonie.

1999

- Monsignor Bernardino Echeverría Ruiz, who had been elevated to the rank of Cardinal in 1994 by Pope John Paul II, presided over the first international conference of the Flame of Love Movement that took place in Mexico City, Mexico. He died on April 6, 2000. He was a friend and a great apostle of Our Lady's Flame of Love.
